

The algorithm allocates for a maximum of 18 convergence tasks, but only uses 7. It deletes the extra tasks and outputs the final results.

The algorithm initializes a series of 7 parallel force calculating tasks and executes them. All the outputs are then sent to a single outputs object.